

Renta4.com Statistics October 2009

Madrid, 5 November 2009

More than 183,000 online executed orders in retail segment at October 2009

In October, Renta 4's retail clients executed 183,264 online orders, which is 84.1% of total orders executed by this segment of clients compared with 85.1% recorder in October 2008.

Number of accounts with, at least, one executed online order fell 4.9% to 26,049 accounts, compared with 27,416 active accounts the previous year.

Lastly, gross revenues generated in online channel were 80.3% of the total brokerage revenues generated in retail segment, a slight decrease of 0.4 percentage points against the same period of last year.

We must take into account for comparative purposes that October 2009 had one trading day less than last year and Monday 12th of October was Columbus Day, which obviously implied lower turnover and orders executed compared with a non holiday trading day.

Likewise, for comparative purposes, linked to the above-mentioned effects happened in October 2009, we must take into account that October 2008 was extremely volatile in financial markets, which caused more trading activity. In fact, October 2008 recorded the highest gross daily brokerage commissions in the year.
